Must be completed and turned into the Omega office by the end of December 2018.

2 REQUIRED ACTIVITIES:

1. Compete at least 5 of the following activities that HONOR AMERICA. Check the box once you have completed it.
 - Attend a 4th of July parade and when the American Flag goes by, stand and cover your heart.
 - Memorize the words to the United States National Anthem and sing it to your family.
 - Memorize the United States Pledge of Allegiance and recite it to your parents.
 - Read the full United States Constitution.
 - Memorize and recite the Preamble to the United States Constitution.
 - Learn how to properly fold the United States Flag.
 - Read the Bill of Rights and learn what Rights we are blessed with in our country.
 - Go on a Flag hunt in your community and see how many flags you can spot.
 - Learn what the symbols and colors on our American Flag represent.
 - Visit a grave of a United States Veteran and put a flower or "Thank You" card on the grave.

Tell us what you learned by doing these activities that Honor America:

2. Find a Veteran of the United States in your community or family and do a service project for them. Please include a "THANK YOU" card from you explaining your gratitude to them for serving our country.

Tell us who the Veteran is that you served and what service project you chose to do for them:

Bonus: Complete additional projects or activities that HONOR AMERICA. You can choose from the above activities that you did not complete or you can think of others that would meet the expectation. (5 Points Each)
Explain what you chose to do and what you learned:
